

DECIDE TO FIGHT FOR OPEN SHOP

Foundrymen Hold Meeting and Vote to Decline Recognition of Union.

REFUSE WAGE INCREASE

MEN SAY THEY ARE NEVERTHELESS SURE OF VICTORY.

At a meeting of the Foundrymen's association held in the Commercial club last evening, the employers decided finally not to yield to the demands of the iron moulders for an increase in wages from $3.50 to $4 a day. They also agreed to enforce the open shop principle.

The Iron-Moulders' union met at Federation hall at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to discuss the situation. No action was taken. The strikers declare their ranks are solid.

"We shall enforce the open shop," said Joseph A. Silver, of the employers' organization last evening after the meeting. "We shall never accede to the unreasonable demands of the iron moulders. We have plenty of men to take the places of those who struck. Whenever the strikers are ready to go back to work they will be given their places. We shall recognize no union nor set scale of wages, however."

"Salt Lake is the only place now paying more than $3.25 for nine hours of work for iron moulders. We are paying $3.50. We shall continue to pay this amount so long as the men deserve it. If the Salt Lake foundrymen should accede to the demands of the iron moulders, the casting business would be ruined in this city. On a scale of $4 per day for nine hours' work, it would be impossible for foundrymen to compete with eastern manufacturers of castings. The result would be that all castings would have to be shipped into this city."

Statement for the Men.

The following statement comes from an official of the union:

"Every moulder in town except four, who refused to join us and who are employed in the Silver Brothers' foundry, is still out. What is more, the chances of a quick victory are good. The strikers grow brighter every hour."

"About a third of our men are what are known as traveling moulders. They do not reside here permanently. Unless our demands are granted within three days these men say they will leave the city. If they do go away the employers will find it difficult to replace them. Without them there are not hands enough in Salt Lake to turn out the local work."

HE WON'T SUE THE SHERIFF

County Attorney Christensen Says Charges Are Made From "Hot Air"

County Attorney P. P. Christensen yesterday investigated the manner of doing business in the sheriff's office, and declared that the charges made against Sheriff C. Frank Emery in a morning were untrue without foundation. The specific charge was that a local collection agency caused a deputy sheriff to be appointed, to serve without pay from the county and that the deputy in question had collected fees which should have gone to the county, and failed to account for them.

"The fact in this case is," said Mr. Christensen, "that this collection agency deposited $250 in cash with the sheriff to cover any fees which might be incurred by the deputy in question. The amount so incurred was considerably under $250, so, while the fees have not been paid in, the sheriff is simply protected by the deposit. Moreover, he has a bond for $20,000 which amply protects the county. These charges are hot air pure and simple, and there is no occasion for suing the sheriff."

During Mr. Christensen's investigation it was pointed out to him that the sheriff is in the habit of extending credit in some cases to lawyers and law firms for fees, and Mr. Christensen said he could see no harm in this; that it was simply a matter of the sheriff himself taking chances, and that if any of those to whom credit was extended failed to pay, the sheriff's bond protects the county.

In this connection it was brought out that P. J. Daly, the "American" party police court prosecutor, has owed the office $5.10 since July, 1904, and that Sheriff Emery requested Assistant County Attorney Willard Hanson to sue him for the amount; but that Mr. Hanson has delayed doing so on account of "P. J.'s" frequent promises to pay up.

VALEDICTORIAN IS SELECTED

Daniel Alexander Will Represent College Class at the University of Utah.

Daniel Alexander was chosen yesterday as valedictorian of the graduating class of this year at the University. This appointment overrules the recommendation of the committee on graduation, which recommended that the valedictory address be stricken off the commencement programme.

Mr. Alexander was born in Utah. He has done both his high school and college work at the University. During his work at the school he has been chosen a member of the team that recently defeated a team from the University of Colorado in an interstate debate. In Salt Lake, besides his debating work, he is this year editor of the Chronicle, the school paper. He is charter member of the "A.P." fraternity.

The matter of choosing a valedictorian from the normal department was postponed until the next meeting of the faculty. The committee on graduation also recommended that the graduating exercises be held in the morning, instead of the evening as is the custom. The faculty, however, were opposed to the recommendation and almost as a body decided to hold the exercises in the evening as usual.

Bingham Junction instantly started making faces at Murray, where the home of Michael Murray is, and similarly visited by triplets—one boy and two girls—five years ago. The Horr triplets are yet unknown to the world. The boys are already famous in Bingham Junction. Latest reports from that point say everyone is doing nicely except the father. He is trying to save the money he has made to spend. Mr. Horr has not yet written to the president.

Governor Issues Proclamation in Which He Praises Work of Civic Improvement League.

ARBOR DAY TO BE APRIL 16

EXECUTIVE URGES GENERAL RENOVATING.

Governor John C. Cutler yesterday issued the following "arbor day" proclamation:

"Whereas, The 15th day of April is designated by statute as Arbor day in the state of Utah, and as the 15th this year falls on Sunday,

"Therefore, in conformity with law and in accordance with custom, I, John C. Cutler, governor of the state of Utah, do hereby issue this proclamation Monday, April 16, as Arbor day.

Monday, April 16, as Arbor Day.

"I recommend that this day be observed as a public holiday, and that all citizens, both in a private capacity, and as trustees of public institutions, school superintendents, principals, teachers and students, and officers and faculties of higher institutions of learning, devote the day to the planting of trees, flowers and shrubs, and to the beautifying of public grounds and private residences.

Great Good to Result.

"He who plants a tree is a public benefactor. The enriching and beautifying of highways, private grounds and public places results from the general observance of the excellent custom prevailing on Arbor day. Not only the removal of weeds, but the enhancement of the value of property, but the instilling in the minds of the young of the importance and sacredness of plant life, are accomplished by the observance of this day with appropriate exercises. I therefore earnestly request that, wherever practicable those connected with schools and public institutions, observe the day in a manner both attractive and impressive as possible to those under their charge.

Praises Civic League.

"I also recommend the splendid work of the Civic Improvement league recently organized in Salt Lake City, and advise that the citizens throughout the entire state include in their work on Arbor day the renovating of their premises, and the beautifying of their homes in every practicable way.

"In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state of Utah to be hereunto affixed.

"Done at Salt Lake City this 24 day of April, A. D. 1906.

"JOHN C. CUTLER.

"By the Governor,
"C. S. Tingey, Secretary of State.

CARD FROM SCHRAMM.

His Liberal Offer to Treat Worst Case of Catarrh in Salt Lake City.

To the Editor:
I have such an unusual offer to make to you, that I feel it my duty to be of the greatest value to them, that I hope you will give this letter prominent location.

For some time I have had an opportunity to watch the results following the use of Hyomei, the treatment for catarrh that cures by breathing, medicated air, absolutely without any stomach dosing. The results have been so remarkable that I feel justified in making a public offer to treat the worst case of catarrh in Salt Lake City with the understanding that if Hyomei does not cure, it will cost absolutely nothing.

People who have spent a great deal of money with catarrh specialists, deriving but little benefit, have seen almost immediate good results from the use of Hyomei, and continued treatment with this remedy has resulted in a complete and lasting cure.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs only $1, and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest-pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. Should this not be enough for a cure, extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 25 cents. Compare this small expense with the fees charged by specialists, and remember we guarantee the treatment will cost nothing unless it cures.

Very truly yours,
F. C. SCHRAMM.

JAPS COME STAYING

Three Engineers Here to Study Smelters and Other Phases of Industry.

INTERESTED IN COPPER

SAY THEIR COUNTRY IS THIRD LARGEST PRODUCER.

For the purpose of learning American methods of mining and smelting copper ores and other minerals, M. Otogawa, T. Fujibayashi and J. Kajima, three mining engineers from Tokyo, Japan, arrived in Salt Lake from Denver, Colo., yesterday morning. The party will leave today for Butte and other Montana mining centers. From Montana the party will go directly to the Lake Superior copper belt district. Yesterday afternoon the party made an inspection trip of the Murray smelter.

"The smelters at Murray are the finest I have yet seen," said Mr. Otogawa, who acted as spokesman for the party. "The arrangement is almost perfect. I have learned much today. I hope we shall be able to put some of our new ideas into practice when we return to Japan."

Japan Big Producer.

"Japan is the third largest copper producing country in the world. The United States is first, Mexico second and Japan approximately to $400,000,000. We find use for nearly all this amount at home. Little or none of it leaves Japanese shores."

"Conditions in Japan are the best. Since the war our commercial life has grown wonderfully. The war has tended to hamper the government just a little in a monetary way. This is being overcome gradually. In a short time Japan will be in her rightful place among the powers, with influence enough to command respect from all."

Interested in Other Things.

Mr. Otogawa was anxious to learn all about commercial, political, social and religious life in Salt Lake. He stated that he had been here some six years ago. At that time he heard of the Tabernacle and became much interested in the Mormon question. He paid, in passing, some high tributes to the leaders of the Mormons, dwelling especially on the works wrought by Brigham Young.

Each of the party is a graduate of the Imperial University of Tokyo. Each has a degree in some branch of the law. Mr. Otogawa is perhaps 30 years of age. His two companions are much younger, being in the neighborhood of 28 to 30 years.

ATTACHMENT PAPERS CAUSE FIERCE STRUGGLE BETWEEN JOHN GREEN AND DEPUTY SHERIFF BOOTH

John Green, 360 West Sixth North street, was arraigned yesterday before Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith for resisting Deputy Sheriff W. B. Booth last Saturday night, who executed a writ for four horses belonging to Green. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty to the charge and was released on $150 bail.

The writ was issued by Judge J. J. Allen, justice of the peace at the court, and Deputy Sheriff Booth was detailed to go and take possession of the horses. Green is now in custody. He took the horses out of his barn. Green met Deputy Booth just as he was leaving the barn. Green held the horses, and Deputy Sheriff Booth received several stinging blows during the fight.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Orpheum average this week very closely approached the exact mark, and any schoolboy will tell you that is the hardest mark to get. There must be one or two in the Orpheum of three of the numbers are on the 'super' show order, but the good ones are so good, and the bad ones are so bad."

The best single-handed entertainer that has yet appeared on the local Orpheum stage is the new attraction, Paul Sweet. Sweet does not need the silly tramp make-up he uses in order to seem funny. His lines are all bright, his business is as clever as they can be. He kept the audience in a genuine roar of laughter all the time he was on. Paul Sweet, with his spectacular novelties, did some odd things, but he did them in such a new way that the work was new.

And most of his stuff was absolutely new. The battleship windup was splendid. The Allen-La Croix-Moller play, "The Victor," was excellently done. Mr. Allen being specially fine as the boyish American who goes to England and fights a duel for his lady love. A little further down the line was the World-Kingston team, in shape and dancing specialties. Stanley and Wilson failed to amuse to any noticeable extent with "Ler Kappel's" Frogs and Frogs. A negro pair, Any negro who dazzles a barroom full of dissemblances and wins a few dimes in a dance, is a good thing. And some audiences outside of tank factories are not so fast on their feet as the kindred ones. The kindred ones showed no crimes, a happy change, and the audience enjoyed them just as much.

"Pablo Romani" drew a good sized audience to the Orpheum theatre. The play runs through Wednesday night, with a matinee on Wednesday.

"The Avenue Girls" are entertaining large audiences at the Lyric.

"Little Johnny Jones," with its great song hit, "Give My Regards to Broadway," is scheduled for Tuesday of next week at the Salt Lake theatre.

MAKES HER LIFE

Mrs. M. A. Bishop Leaves Sick-Bed and Cuts Her Throat With a Razor.

EXPIRES WITHIN AN HOUR

DAUGHTER FINDS HER IN THE CELLAR.

Mrs. M. A. Bishop, mother-in-law of C. Hyde Tingey, deputy state auditor, stole from her sickbed, in the absence of her daughter, about 10 o'clock yesterday morning suffering from nervous delirium and killed herself by slashing her throat with a razor. Mrs. Bishop had been bed-ridden for months at her daughter's residence, 822 Park avenue, and for the past week had been mentally deranged.

Two wounds were inflicted in Mrs. Bishop's throat. One was under the right ear and the other severed the windpipe. The jugular vein was not cut and death resulted from strangulation.

Mrs. Tingey left her mother's bedside to get some coal. While she was out of the home Mrs. Bishop jumped from her bed and wandered over to her bedroom. She found a razor on one of the shelves. Mrs. Bishop picked it up and went into the cellar, where she inflicted the wounds. When Mrs. Tingey returned she found the bedroom empty.

Finds Mother in Cellar.

Calling to her mother she searched through the house. Mrs. Tingey received no reply and at last went down into the cellar. There she found her mother lying on the floor.

Mrs. Tingey summoned Dr. W. M. Thome, who lives across the street from the Tingey residence. The woman was carried from the cellar to her bedroom, where medical assistance was given. Mrs. Bishop died from strangulation about an hour afterward.

Justice of the Peace Dana T. Smith was notified and examined the remains. He decided that an inquest was not necessary. The body was taken to S. D. Evans' undertaking parlors.

Ill for Some Time.

Mrs. Bishop was 60 years of age. For some time she had been suffering from nervous troubles and for a month or two had been mentally unbalanced. Mrs. Bishop was a widow and had five children. Mrs. Tingey is her only daughter. She has four sons living in the city. Mrs. Bishop's sister, Mrs. Robert Trotter, lives in Big Cottonwood.

No funeral arrangements have not been completed.

APRIL FOOL BY WEATHER MAN

Heavy Snowfall Occurs Over the Entire Northern Portion of Utah.

MORE PREDICTED TODAY
GREAT SALT LAKE IS SLOWLY RISING.

Wasn't that a good April fool joke Dr. Hyatt of the local weather bureau played upon Salt Lakers yesterday? He had them thinking they were still in the throes of winter. To do this he spread snow all over the neighboring scenery to a depth of twelve inches. In some places the snow was deeper. Measurements taken yesterday morning placed the actual precipitation for the past forty-eight hours at 1.35 inches. The snow was heavy, owing to the warm condition of the atmosphere.

The storm has been coming for several days from the northern Pacific coast. Green, Utah, has been hit by the storm. It changed to snow but narrowly missed being hit by a gun and the storm was in Utah tell of rain and snowstorms Sunday. At Logan rain fell Sunday. Snow and sleet were reported from the east. Ogden reported about the same amount. Morgan twice that quantity. Park City has been reported to have had a heavy snowfall. Little snow has been reported from the south. The storm is accompanied by strong winds. Nephel reported fourteen inches of snow with more falling. The southern cities have not been visited by snow or rain, although several towns are darkened by threatening clouds.

The storm was predicted Saturday afternoon by the local weather bureau. With the snow falling steadily, the snow will melt rapidly. Salt Lakers with disappointed hearts will forego the pleasures of the snow. The snow is not high until the streets lose their present resemblance to muddy rivers and mountain streams. The storm was a heavy one and had the ground been frozen the snow would have shown a greater depth. No one grumbled because it was not deep enough.

Lake Is Rising.

The lake is rising as a natural result of the recent storms, although it is not high as it was at the corresponding season last year. A new gauge installed at the station showed the water to be four feet above zero. The snow is rising steadily and will continue to do so noticeably during the coming month. The snow is not high until the streets lose their present resemblance to muddy rivers and mountain streams. The storm was a heavy one and had the ground been frozen the snow would have shown a greater depth. No one grumbled because it was not deep enough.
